WEDNESDAYS AT MADISON KICK-OFF EVENT REMINDERS

1. Please contact the church (601.856.6058; jackiemc@madisonumc.org) immediately if you need to cancel your supper reservation. We have a waiting list of several people who would love to have your reservation. We must ask people without reservations to wait to eat until we are sure that we have enough meals, unless there have been cancellations. Please remember that there will be no take-out meals that evening.
2. The supper line will open at 5:00 p.m. so please come early, if you can, to help with the length of the lines. We are asking adults with no children at the meal to please move to the sanctuary once they are finished eating. This will help us open up room for more people to eat.
3. We will get our plates and pay for our meals in the Atrium of our Education Building. You can enter through the east or west entrances of the Atrium. Keep your plate if you would like to go back for a second, or even a third, time.
4. Due to the large number of people that we will have, we will not have a children’s play area in the CLC. Parents, please watch your children during the meal time.
5. Infants-3 year olds will go to the nursery that evening and parents can take them there any time after 6:00 p.m. Four-year olds-3rd graders will watch the illusionist in the Multi-Purpose Room with Ms. Renee and other volunteers. Parents can drop them off there any time after 6:00 p.m. and should pick them up immediately following the program. We will reserve the front pews in the sanctuary for our 4th-6th graders, if they would like to sit there for a better view.
